This job description is a broad outline only, allowing scope for initiative in improving services and general operation of NSVSS. This JD will be reviewed on a regular basis.

Health & Safety

It is the responsibility of all employees to work with managers to achieve a healthy and safe environment, and to take reasonable care of themselves and others. Specific individual responsibilities for Health & Safety will be outlined under key responsibilities for the post.

Equality & Diversity

It is the responsibility of all employees to support the NSVSS's vision of promoting a positive approach to diversity and equality of opportunity, to eliminate discrimination and disadvantage in service delivery and employment, and to manage, support or comply through the implementation of the Nottingham Rape Crisis Centre Equal Opportunities Policy.

Sex Discrimination Act (Sections 7(2) b and 7(2) e

As the post predominately involves the management of female young people who have been sexually assaulted it is a genuine occupational qualification under the Sex Discrimination Act, sections 7(2) b and 7(2) e that the post holder may only be female.

Data Protection Act 1998

Under provision of the Act, it is the responsibility of each member of staff to ensure that all data, whether computerized or manual, is kept secure at all times. This includes data relating to clients and other members of staff. Data must not be disclosed to any unauthorized person and must be regarded as strictly confidential at all times. Failure to adhere to this instruction will be regarded as serious misconduct and could lead to dismissal.

Confidentiality

The jobholder will be in possession of personal details of staff and clients and other confidential information. This must not be discussed or divulged to any unauthorized person. Any such instance would result in dismissal.

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

This post is subject to an exception order under the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. This stipulates that all previous convictions, including those that are 'spent' must be declared. Previous convictions will not necessarily preclude an individual from employment within the NSVSS but must be declared in writing at the appropriate stage during the recruitment process.

All of the above activities are governed by the operational policies, policies and procedures and standards of the NSVSS as well as legislation and professional standards and guidelines.

As a term of your employment with the NSVSS, you may be required to undertake such other duties commensurate with your grade and/or hours of work at your initial place of work or at any of the NSVSS's establishments, as may reasonably be required of you.

NOTE: This is a description of the job as it is presently constituted. It is the practice of the NSVSS to regularly examine employees' job descriptions and to update them to ensure that they relate to the job as then being performed, or to incorporate whatever changes are being proposed. This procedure is jointly conducted by the CEO and the Board of Trustees. You will, therefore, be expected to participate fully in such discussions and, in connection with them, to assist in the re-writing of your job description to bring it up to date if this is considered necessary or desirable. It is NSVSS's aim to reach agreement on reasonable changes, but if agreement is not possible NSVSS reserves the right to insist on changes to your job description after consultation with you.
